National Republicans of Iran

Invitation to the Conference “National Unity for a Democratic and Free Iran”

We hereby cordially invite you to the conference “National Unity for a Democratic and Free Iran”, which will take place on June 21, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., at Stadthalle Erkrath, Neanderstraße 58, 40699 Erkrath.

The conference is open to the public. Participation is open to all interested individuals, civil society and political activists, human rights defenders, and supporters of freedom, democracy, territorial integrity, secularism, and national sovereignty for Iran.

The event will be held with the participation of more than 18 political and human rights organizations, as well as politicians and activists. It will provide a platform for the exchange of ideas and the discussion of practical ways to support the struggle of the Iranian people.

The organizers of this conference believe that cooperation among democratic forces and support for a national leadership during the transitional period are essential prerequisites for the success of the Iranian people's freedom movement. In this context, the initiative supports the national role and leadership of Reza Pahlavi during the transition to democracy.

Main sessions of the conference:

1. National Republicans and the necessity of cooperation for a democratic Iran
2. Support for Reza Pahlavi as a national leader during the transitional period and its significance
3. A democratic Iran and its role in regional and global security and stability
4. Ways to support the national revolution of the Iranian people

Your participation will make a valuable contribution to strengthening cooperation among democratically minded Iranian forces.

For organizational purposes, we kindly request that you register in advance using the following link:
